

Fire Sprinkler System Designer

Entry level position available for a Fire Sprinkler System Designer
Interested candidates with additional design experience are encouraged to apply

Company Profile: Patriot Fire Protection is a privately owned fire sprinkler contractor that designs, fabricates, and installs fire protection sprinkler systems in commercial, industrial, and residential buildings, with offices located in Tacoma, Spokane, and Vancouver Washington.

Job Title: Fire Sprinkler System Designer

Job Summary: Assist in Fire Protection Sprinkler System Design using the latest version of AutoCAD for a variety of projects including commercial, industrial, and residential.

Starting Duties and Responsibilities:

- Prepare AutoCAD backgrounds for design
- AutoCAD drafting
- Prepare Material & Equipment Submittals
- Assist with field surveying of buildings

Eventual Duties and Responsibilities:

- Design and Layout of Fire Protection Sprinkler Systems
- Coordination with architects other building trades
- Hydraulic Calculations
- Seismic Calculations

Qualifications:

- Graduate of a Tech/Trade School, Community College, or University
- 2 years minimum of AutoCAD experience
- Proficiency in MS Office programs
- Self-motivated individual with good communication skills and a team player
- Valid driver's license with excellent driving record
- Candidates must successfully pass a drug test and a complete employment background check

Patriot Fire Protection offers our employees a competitive salary and a comprehensive benefits package that includes; healthcare, dental, and life insurance, 401k Plan, paid vacation and holidays, and more. Starting salary D.O.E.